OPEN HOUSE AND STUDENT ORIENTATION
Tuesday, August 21, 2018
Open House: 5-6pm ~ Student Orientation: 6-7pm

INTRODUCTION TO THE OLD TESTAMENT

Instructor: David Hull, M.Div. The study of the Old Testament is not a dry, once-in-a-lifetime obligation to endure. It is mining for treasure in an incredibly rich field, and the greatest treasure is the revelation of God Himself. This course will be a survey of this revelation and will emphasize the mastery of Bible content and structure, knowledge of the historical framework of the biblical period, and basic concepts of biblical interpretation.
(BIB 300/600) 15 wks, Mon. 8/27 & 9/10-12/10, 6-8:30pm. $355 for 3 semester credits, $209 for personal growth.

INTRODUCTION TO MICROSOFT OFFICE SUITE

Instructor: Felicia Rogers Shorter

This introductory training class is designed for individuals to have an opportunity to learn Word, PowerPoint and Excel. Students will learn how to use Word, create PowerPoint presentations and organize numerical and text data using Excel.

(TR 101) 5 wks, Mon. 8/27 & 9/10-10/1, 6:30-8:30pm. For personal growth only, $49. Bring your laptop.

INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTIAN COUNSELING

Instructor: Bob Garment, M.Div. Christian counseling can include a range of skills from peer-based life coaching to professional clinical care. In this course we will focus on understanding how God has designed us with the inherent need for relationship with Him and with other people. The course will explore the common causes for spiritual and relational issues as well as the tools and skills necessary to overcome personal and relational brokenness.

(CNS 535) 15 wks, Tues. 8/28-12/4, 9:30am-noon. $365 for 3 semester credits &/or 37 CEUs, $219 for personal growth. Materials included. Text: The Search for Significance, Robert S. McGee, 2003 edition.

I & II TIMOTHY & TITUS

Instructor: Margaret Swinger, M.A. These letters from Paul are as up-to-date as this morning's paper – and as Christians we need to understand them more deeply. These books give strategic instruction to the church and are continuing handbooks for leadership. They include the revelation and deity of Christ Jesus as: the source of grace, mercy, and peace; the Savior who gave Himself a ransom for all; the redeemer and mediator between God and man; and our current hope. The study includes the promises of His return and of the power of the Holy Spirit to maintain a victorious lifestyle patterned after Christ.

(BIB 455-6) 10 wks, Tues. 8/28-10/30, 6-8:30pm. $225 for 2 semester credits, $124 for personal growth. Text: Workbook included. Bring your Bible.

NEW TESTAMENT GREEK I-A

Instructor, David Hull, M.Div. This course is the first half of first-year New Testament Greek. It covers basic concepts, forms, and functions. The goal is to equip the student for a basic understanding of the Greek New Testament with a concentration on the Greek nominal (noun) system. By the end of this first semester, one should be able to read approximately 75% of the Greek New Testament.

(LANG 412/612A) 15 wks, Tues. 8/28-12/4, 6-8:30pm. $355 for 3 semester credits, $209 for personal growth. Required texts: Essentials of New Testament Greek, Ray Summers ISBN 978-08054410013 ISBN 0805410015 and a Greek New Testament (preferably United Bible Societies, 3rd or 4th edition; NOT Modern Greek).

THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Instructor: Pastor Emory Collier. This course is an in-depth study of the gifts of the Holy Spirit as they operate and are shown in Scripture. The gifts will be explored from several viewpoints, including the Holy Spirit and how He moves through us to impact and influence the everyday life. The Proper protocol for ministry, both informational and inspirational, will also be discussed. Participants will also learn to recognize opportunities for practically exercising the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

(THE 375) 5wks, Tues. 8/28-9/25, 6-8:30pm. $110 for 1 semester credit &/or 12 CEUs, $59 for personal growth. Text: Gifts of the Holy Spirit, Derek Prince, ISBN: 978-0-8368-291-3.

HISTORY OF THE DEVELOPMENT AND EXPANSION OF THE CHURCH

Instructor: Jackie Wilson, M.S. Together we will examine the Judaic roots of the church and its expansion from Pentecost to the present. We will survey church doctrine and practices as well as the development of each church period. We will cover important Christian events that have shaped history and our faith, and survey the church's effect on human life.

(HIS 411/511) 15 wks, Thurs. 8/30-11/15, 11/29-12/13, 6-8:30pm. $355 for 3 semester credits, $209 for personal growth. Text: The Story of Christianity, Justo L. Gonzalez, ISBN# 1-56563-522-1.

EL EVANGELIO DE JUAN (THE GOSPEL OF JOHN IN SPANISH)

Instructor: Felix Aguayo, Ph.D. Este curso tiene como objetivo explorar y profundizar en el estudio del Evangelio de Juan utilizando diferentes estrategias y recursos academicos. Sera de gran ayuda a todos los creyentes que tienen el privilegio de ministrar la Palabra de Dios a otros mediante la predicacion y los estudios biblicos. Ademas, ayudara a los miembros laicos de las iglesias a tener mayor conocimiento biblico y a crecer y a madurar espiritualmente.

(BIB 343) 10 wks, Thurs. 8/30-11/1, 6-8:30pm. $210 for 2 semester credits, $109 for personal growth.

I & II SAMUEL, I & II KINGS AND I & II CHRONICLES

Instructor: David Hull, M.Div. These books comprise six of the twelve books of Old Testament history. They are extremely relevant for today, largely in a setting of tumultuous times with plenty of political and spiritual ups and downs for the Israelites. These books present challenges for the student of God's Holy Word, as they are lengthy, complex, and contain difficult chronological issues. We will seek to unravel difficulties and bring clarity and order to the understanding of this important section of Scripture.

(BIB 373/473) 15 wks, Thurs. 8/30-12/13, 6-8:30pm. $355 for 3 semester credits, $209 for personal growth.

THE EFFECTS OF TRAUMA AND HOW TO DEAL WITH IT

Instructors: Jim and Pat Banks, House of Healing Ministries. How do you help trauma victims mitigate the spiritual and emotional effects of trauma? In this class you will learn the principles behind each element of The Trauma Prayer and discover how to pray effectively for those who are experiencing or have experienced trauma, and for those who are praying on behalf of others. You will also find new elements of prayer that will increase your ability to minister to a broader range of presenting issues.

(CNS 424) Thurs. 9/20, 9:30-1:30. $25 for .25 semester credits &/or 5 CEU's, $15 for personal growth. Text: The Effects of Trauma and How to Deal With It, Jim & Pat Banks. Available at seminar.

WALK THRU THE BIBLE OLD TESTAMENT

Instructor: Kay Campbell-Williams M.A. Do you study the Bible according to your own personal learning style: visual, auditory or kinesthetic? Experience a method of learning the Old Testament that incorporates all three learning styles to help you remember various characters and main events.

(BIB 231) Thurs. 9/27, 9:30am-4:30pm. $17 audit fee includes the Walk Thru the Bible Study Guide.

SELECTING, SUPPLEMENTING & DEVELOPING EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS

Instructor: Jean Williams, Ph.D. Effective biblical education often requires preparation for a particular audience. Increase your teaching skills and learn standards for selecting appropriate materials to teach scripture. Explore processes for supplementing existing materials and developing basic teaching activities. We will include discussion of age appropriateness, relevancy and interests. Activities developed in this course may be included in the Christian Education Certificate project.

WALK THRU THE BIBLE NEW TESTAMENT

Instructor: Kay Campbell-Williams, M.A. Do you study the Bible according to your own personal learning style: visual, auditory or kinesthetic? Experience a method of learning the New Testament that incorporates all three learning styles to help you remember various characters and main events.

(BIB 230) Thurs. 10/18, 9:30am-4:30pm. $17 audit fee includes the Walk Thru the Bible Study Guide.

ISLAM UNVEILED

Instructor: Trent Wheeler. Islam Unveiled discusses the biblical background of the Middle East crisis, the historic roots of Islam, the fundamental teachings of the different sects, and how Christianity can engage the Islamic community.

(MIS 451 or MIN 431) Thurs. 10/18, 9:30am-4:30pm. $49 for .50 semester credit, $25 for personal growth.

CHRIST IN THE CONSTITUTION: THE BIBLICAL ROOTS OF OUR FOUNDING DOCUMENTS

Instructor: Bob Garment, M.Div. Explore the influence of Christianity on the founding documents of the United States. In an era of revisionist history, challenges to the spiritual heritage of America abound. Students delve into the wording, themes, and source material of the actual documents which formed our nation – and examine the intent and beliefs of the founders in their own words. Topics include the personal faith of key founders, an analysis of the Biblical themes woven into the Declaration of Independence and Constitution, an introduction to the purpose of the Bill of Rights, and a review of key interpretations of the Constitution.

(HIS 315) Sat. 10/27, 9am-1pm. $25 for .25 semester credit, $15 for personal growth.

YOU ARE GOD'S MASTERPIECE: Discovering Your True Identity in Christ

Instructor: Linda Strickland. We are all born into this world pure and clean, but then something happens. Family dysfunction, trauma, suffering, on-going sin, disappointment, incorrect teaching – just to name a few – can have an enormous impact on how we view God, how we see ourselves, and how a false-self is formed. In this seminar we will explore who God is, who God says we are, and the healing journey back to our true and authentic self.

(CNS 438) Thurs. 11/1, 9:30am-4:30pm. $49 for .50 semester credit &/or 6 CEUs, $25 for personal growth.

HELPING THE HOMELESS, HURTING, AND HOPELESS

Instructors: Glenn and Beth Burns, Directors, Good Samaritan Network. When you encounter a homeless or needy person, how do you respond? This seminar will give you tools and resources to address their need, and yours. Students will become aware of the various services available in our community to help those in need and a resource guide will be provided. The seminar will also include a survey of laws pertaining to the homeless community. (CNS 375 or MIN 375) Thurs. 11/8, 9:30am-1:30pm. $25 for .25 semester credit &/or 5 CEUs, $15 for personal growth.

LIVING THE GREAT COMMISSION

Instructor: David Parrish, Director, International School of Theology & Leadership. Great movements of God begin with a call. Why did God send Moses to Egypt to free His people? Why did Nehemiah rebuild the wall? Why did God send Jesus into the world? This interactive class includes questions and answers relating to the why, where, when, who and how of our various roles in the calling of God. Students learn God's part and our part, local and global outreach, and the Biblical view of the Great Commission. We will discuss ways we can live out the Great Commission in our various occupations and stations in life.

(MIN 303/403 or MIS 251) 5 wks, Thurs. 11/8-15 & 11/29-12/13, 6-8:30pm. $110 for 1 semester credit, $59 for personal growth. Text: Bring your Bible.

HOW TO MEMORIZE SCRIPTURE

Instructor: David Hull, M.Div. There is more to learning than memorizing, but memorizing is essential to the learning process. As disciples of the Master Teacher, there is much about the Christian life that involves learning and remembering. It is most useful for Bible students, and preachers and teachers to have a quick and accurate recall of Scripture references, memory verses, and much more. This course is designed and intended to be immensely practical. We will give careful attention to obstacles, principles, attitudes, skills, tools, and many other matters that affect our success at memorizing. The instructor's personally-designed, color-coded system will be presented.

(BIB 424/624 or CED 350/650) Sat. 11/10, 9am-4pm. $49 for 1 semester credit, $25 for personal growth. Text: Bring your Bible.
